

Social Science workshop

Social Science for Tree Health and Plant Biosecurity Workshop to be held at Fera, Sand Hutton, York on 25th September 2015. (Invited participants only)

To include presentations and discussions about public risk perceptions, acceptability of potential genetic solutions to tree health, good practice in stakeholder engagement: lessons from technology development for early detection and Dynamic social and cultural values of public tree landscapes - the influence of the management of pests and diseases.

If you are interested in these topics contact Urquhart, Julie <j.urquhart@imperial.ac.uk>